Mount Prospect Mayor, Arlene Juracek, Scheduled to Attend Northwest Compass Coordinated Entry Walk-in Center Grand Opening

Northwest Compass will be joined by Mount Prospect mayor, Arlene Juracek, for the ribbon cutting at their official Coordinated Entry Walk-in Center grand opening at 10am on Wednesday, June 21, 2017.

Mount Prospect, IL – June 16, 2017

Northwest Compass serves as a lead agency for Coordinated Entry (CE) in the North, a community-wide system that standardizes and expedites the process by which people experiencing homelessness, or who are at imminent risk of homelessness, access shelter, housing and additional resources. The Mount Prospect-based agency will celebrate the official opening of their Coordinated Entry Walk-in Center with a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 10am on Wednesday, June 21, 2017 with Mount Prospect mayor, Arlene Juracek, and other local officials scheduled to attend.

June 21 is the Summer solstice—the first day of Summer and the longest day of the year. Many health centers serving the homeless have started a tradition on this day of celebrating those who have overcome homelessness while recommitting to end homelessness for everyone. “We could not think of a better day to celebrate the grand opening of the Northwest Compass Coordinated Entry Walk-in Center,” says Sonia Ivanov, NWC Managing Director, Program Delivery.

“We are proud to serve as lead agency for Coordinated Entry across the Northwest suburbs,” says Ivanov, “We’re looking forward to working with partner agencies to help end homelessness in our community,” adds LeRoy Messenger, NWC CEO.
